

Veloscenic 10 days
Discover "Veloscenic", the spectacular cycle route between
Paris and Mont Saint Michel

Discover the Veloscenie, a superb road from Paris to Mont Saint Michel, cycling through Maintenon in Chartres with its Cathédrale de lumières. You will enjoy cycling in forests and in the norman countryside, with the Thermes de Bagnoles de l'Orne and the majestic Mont Saint Michel at the end of your tour. This itinerary is an excellent combination between culture and nature.

Day 1

Arrival in Paris.

Day 2 Paris – Versailles 36 km

This first day starts with a gentle ride around Paris. You will pass by the Cathedral of Notre Dame de Paris, the Eiffel Tower and other must-see sites of the city. You will then cycle along the unspoilt quiet roads in the valley of La Bièvre taking you to the royal city of Versailles for your first night.

Day 3 Versailles – Epernon 70 km

You leave Versailles and cycle along the picturesque Valley de la Chevreuse. Châteaux, museums, wash-houses, small lovely villages await you, and you can sample local produce in the farms in the Regional Natural Park...You will then enter the Domaine de Rambouillet with its famous château, the former residence of the Kings of France. You will cycle along the unspoilt routes of the château to arrive in Epernon.

Day 4 Epernon – Illiers Combray 66 km

The bike ride starts on charming roads passing through numerous small villages. Before arriving at the great city of Chartres, you will have the possibility to visit the magnificent château of Madame de Maintenon, last wife of Sun King Louis XIV. Do not miss a visit to the recently renovated garden "à la française" of the château. The second highlight of the day is the city of Chartres with its sublime cathedral, a UNESCO world heritage site and a masterpiece of gothic art. The cathedral boasts 9 sculpted gates and 2,600 m<sup>2</sup> of stained glass windows dating from the 12th and 13th centuries. You will then ride to Illiers-Combray amongst the romantic countryside that inspired Marcel Proust for his novel "A la recherche du temps perdu".

Day 5 Illiers Combray – Condeau 61 km

This itinerary then takes you on to the National Park of Perche, through authentic green landscapes. The region is renowned for the Percheron breed of horses, and you will have the possibility of visiting a breeding centre where you can take a carriage ride. This region is also well known for its apples and cider producers will also be happy to give you a tasting along the way.

Day 6 Condeau – Alençon 60 km

Your ride today begins gently in the National Park of Normandie Maine. Part of the day is along a cycle path and, you will enjoy a varied landscape all day to the charming town of Alençon. Alençon is famous for its needle lace-making, a technique which is UNESCO registered.

Day 7 Alençon – Bagnoles-de l'Orne 53 km

Today is a little more challenging but the scenery is breath-taking and you will enjoy wonderful views throughout the day. Along the route, you can visit the impressive small Château de Carrouges. The gardens of the château could be a good option for a picnic. Your day ends in Bagnoles de l'Ornes. This city is full of charms, especially its Belle Epoque neighbourhood. The city is also well known for its baths so why not end the day with a relaxing swim or a massage.

Day 8 Bagnoles – St Hilaire du Harcouët 61 km

Today you ride through fascinating landscapes and forests to Domfront with its historical town centre. Most of the way will be along dedicated cycle routes, and this lovely day will end in Saint Hilaire, a small but lively town.

Day 9 St Hilaire – Mont St Michel 61 km

However, many images you've seen of the Mont St-Michel rising majestically from its massive bay, coming in person will always be a moving experience.

Magical Mont-St-Michel. The sight is stunning, the island is topped by its Gothic Abbey masterpiece. The bay is subject to some of the biggest tidal variations in Europe, so the views change hourly. At high tide, the island is surrounded by water, but as the waters recede, a vast network of channels is revealed. These great shifts add to the magic.

Day 10 Departure

After breakfast, transfer to the train station of Saint Malo.

Possibility to book our return shuttle-service to Chartres, Versailles or Paris.
