ARRIVAL

Daily
14.03 - 31.10.2026

Day 1 Dijon

Discover the treasures of Dijon such as the Church Notre Dame, the Tomb of the Dukes, who were more important than the king of France in medieval Burgundy. The influence of the Dukes of Burgundy was renowned and they were particularly close to the English throne.

Day 2 Dijon - Beaune 43 km

The rolling vineyard countryside is waiting. This is the heart of Burgundy and you will savour it. Don't miss a visit to the wine château of Aloxe Corton, with its delightfully ornate roof, or the 12th Century Clos de Vougeot Château, which was the property of the Cîteaux Abbey for several centuries. In Nuits St Georges you will have a tasting in the world-renowned wine village that has produced wine for a thousand years.

Day 3 Beaune - La Bussière 46 km

Today you cycle to La Bussière. This area is typical for historical monuments, such as the old village wash houses. Possibility to visit Chateauneuf and the castle from the 15th of century before leaving to La Bussière.

Day 4 La Bussière - Dijon 40 km

Before leaving you can visit the Cistercian-Abbey. After that you will cycle along the Canal de Bourgogne in the Ouche Valley. The way back at the waterside is easy to ride and you will arrive at Dijon by the lake Kir.

Day 5 Departure
