Day 1 Dijon

Arrival at the hotel in Dijon. At approximately 6.30 pm you will be greeted by one of our team members and additionally to the documents sent to you, you will receive more detailed information. Now, you have the opportunity to explore the former hometown of the Dukes of Burgundy. The gothic abbey church Notre Dame, the duke's palace with its statues and the impressive city palaces built in the 17th and 18th century are worth a visit.

Day 2 Dijon - Beaune 43 km

Your tour continues via Marsannay-la-Côte until you reach the famous Clos de Vougeot, a former cellar of Cistercian monks. Wonderful small vineyard roads will lead you to Nuits-Saint-Georges where you are awaited with a wine tasting. Well known for its many Premier Cru wines, you will definitely enjoy the tasting.

Afterwards you will continue cycling along the little picturesque roads until you arrive in Beaune, the capital of wine. Here you will have the opportunity to enjoy a stroll through the vibrant city in the evening.

Day 3 Beaune - Beaune 32 km

You can visit the famous hospice in the morning. Afterwards you are going to leave Beaune headed to world-famous wine villages like Pommard. The cycling path leads you straight through the vineyards. In the evening you will return to Beaune. It's time to say "Good Bye" - unless you want to extend your journey.
