Day 1 Reims

On your arrival in Reims, you might have time to visit the beautiful city of Reims. City of Culture and History. Take the time to walk to the wonderful Cathedral of Reims. This Cathedrale was the unique place where the king of France was sacred since the 10th century. It's a unique masterpiece of the gothic style and classified as a UNESCO site. Even though the cathedral suffered from the 2 world wars, you will enjoy the great work of renovation. In Reims, you can also visit some house of champagne and finish with a Champagne tasting.

Day 3 Epernay - Epernay 35 km

Before starting your cycling day, you will discover the worldwide well-known Champagne maker: Moët & Chandon/Mercier with a visit and tasting. Today the route will lead you through some charming wine growing villages. The appellation is here for most of them: Blanc de Blanc. The landmark is very typical for the Champagne region. You will have many possibilities to stop by at a Wine maker to taste the very delicate Blanc de Blanc Champagne. Easy cycling back to Epernay. It is now time to say goodbye – au revoir!

Day 2 Reims - Epernay 47 km

You start your cycling day along canal Aisne – Marne and leave the city of Reims on the quiet topath along the canal with the bikes. Hilly part of the Champagne vineyards. In Chigny les Roses a stop is necessary, here 41 wine cellars exist. You can stop on the way for your first experience with the Champagne IN the Champagne! The tour ends in Epernay, time to discover the Avenue of Champagne.
