ARRIVAL

Daily
14.03 - 31.10.26

Day 1 Orange

Time to visit the Roman monuments as the theatre one of the best preserved of all Roman theatres.

Day 2 Orange - Uzès 54 km

Beautiful landscapes. Orchards, vineyards from the famous Côte du Rhône (Lirac, Laudan) until St Laurent. Arriving at the charming medieval village overlooking the Alzon Valley, Uzès. Is a typical provençal Village with a wonderful market place.

Day 3 Uzès - Pont du Gard - Avignon 49 km

Small peacefully roads will take you to the spectacular site of Pont du Gard, considered one of the wonders of the ancient world. The Roman aqueduct was built to carry water across the River Gardon to the City of Nîmes. The end of the day trip will be in Avignon.

Day 4 Avignon - St Rémy 32 or 56 km

Arriving in Avignon you have time to visit the Roman monuments and the Palace of the Popes. You leave Avignon by small quiet roads and you are cycling towards one of the most beautiful villages in the region and very typical: St Rémy.

Known for the aromas of wild herbs. St Rémy where Van Gogh has lived and where Nostradamus was born. The wines from Les Baux have granted their own appellation status in the late eighties. You can enjoy the end of the day in the romantic small streets and places of St Rémy.

Day 5 St Rémy - Les Baux - St Rémy 40 km

Today you're cycling from St Remy to Les Baux. The remarkable pilgrimage site was built at 200 m high outcrop and is dominated by a ruined fortress. It's the area of Van Gogh and here he got the inspiration for a lot of his paintings. Wonderful landscape in the shadow of the Alpilles mountains.

Day 6 St Rémy - Arles 32 km

This day you left St Remy to cycling south, towards to the Mediterranean sea in the town of Arles, perched on the side of the Rhone with its well-preserved amphitheatre, countless medieval and Roman monuments.

Day 7 Arles - Ste-Marie-de-la-Mer - Arles 37 km

Passing Mejanès you will cycle towards the Mediterranean by the protected region of the Camargue. Here you will see the white horses and exotic wildlife that roam the countryside. Transfer back to Arles.

Day 8 Arles - Orange

Return by train to Orange and departure.
