14.03 - 31.10.26

Day 1 Dijon

Arrival at the hotel in Dijon. At approximately 6.30 pm, you will be greeted by our team member and on top of your travel documents, you will receive additional information. Now you have the opportunity to explore the former hometown of the Dukes of Burgundy. The gothic abbey church Notre Dame, the duke's palace with its statues and the impressive city palaces built in the 17th and 18th century are worth a visit.

Day 3 Beaune - Beaune 44 km

You can visit the famous hospice in the morning. Afterwards you are going to leave Beaune headed to world-famous wine villages like Pommard. The cycling path leads you straight through the vineyards. In the evening you will return to Beaune.

Day 4 Departure

Day 2 Dijon - Beaune 43 km

Your tour continues via Marsannay-la-Côte until you will reach the famous Clos de Vougeot, a former cellar of Cistercian monks. Wonderful small vineyard roads will lead you to Nuits-Saint-Georges, famous for its wines.

Afterwards you will continue cycling along the little picturesque roads until you arrive in Beaune, the capital of wines where you will enjoy a wine tasting. Here you will have the opportunity to enjoy a stroll through the vibrant city in the evening.
