ARRIVAL

Daily
14.03 - 31.10.2026

Day 1 Orange

Arrival to Orange (possible by train). There is time to visit the Roman theater, one of the best preserved in France. With a glass of wine, you can prepare yourself for your cycling holiday during our welcome talk.

Day 2 Orange - Vaison la Romaine - Mazan 54 km

You leave Orange on small quiet side roads and drive mainly along vineyards on the picturesque mountains "Les Dentelles de Montmirail" with its jagged peaks. Sablet and Gigondas, known for their good wines, are on the route. When you arrive in Vaison-la-Romaine, you should visit the Roman excavations before continuing to Mazan.

From Sault you can enjoy a magnificent view of the Mont Ventoux and the linear lavender fields. Wonderful descent along the ridge of the Albion with its many limestone formations to the regional park "Luberon".

Day 5 Apt - L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue 52 km

The Luberon Regional Park was launched in 1977. Other quarries, limestone mountains, olive groves and picturesque villages characterize the landscape. Passing through the park is partly on a disused railway line of picturesque beauty. A highlight of the day: Gordes! The village lies like an eagle's nest on a hill high above the Luberon valley. Possibility to visit the Cistercian Abbey Senanque.

Day 6 L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue - Avignon - Uzès 72 km

Leaving Isle-sur-Sorgue, with its many antique shops and watermills, you will first arrive in Avignon where you have the opportunity to visit the former Pope's Palace and the Pont du Gard with its 2000- year-old history. A very scenic cycle path leads from * here to Uzès, one of the most beautiful villages of Provence.

Day 7 Uzès - Orange 54 km

After a walk through the historic city center and its gallery buildings of Uzès, the last day of cycling takes you through an eclectic landscape of vineyards, pine forests and river landscapes to Orange.

Day 8 Departure

The cycle tour ends in Orange.
