Day 1 Colmar

Arrival in Colmar. Discover the picturesque old town with its many museums and half-timbered houses. The different quarters, with their narrow streets, seem to come from another era. A pleasant stroll through the town will allow you to relax and prepare for your cycling vacation.

Day 2 Colmar - Obernai 64 km

You leave Colmar and begin your cycling tour through the fantastic wine-growing region. Passing through Riquewihr and Hunawihr, two of France's most beautiful villages, you arrive at Ribeauvillé, another remarkable medieval village with a rich cultural heritage. These charming villages, with their half-timbered houses, invite you to linger. Continue along the wine route towards Dambach la Ville. From here, you continue on the wine route and enjoy a magnificent view over the vineyards of grands crus. You reach Mittelbergheim, one of France's most beautiful villages, with its half-timbered houses. From here, pedal on to Obernai.

Day 3 Obernai - Strasbourg 36 km

You leave Obernai and pedal to Molsheim, a lively little town with plenty of Alsatian charm. Here, you take the Canal de la Bruche and pedal on to Strasbourg. This magnificent city has an interesting cathedral and picturesque quarters. Let yourself be seduced by its charm and enjoy a delicious Alsatian meal in the evening.

Day 4 Arrival

After breakfast, it's sadly time to say goodbye. "See you soon!"
