27.04 - 14.09.2026

Day 1 Arrival in Bruges

Bruges and its historic center, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, are immediately notable for their architecture and cultural treasures. Take your time to enjoy the medieval atmosphere in the alleys and old markets. Bruges is also the ideal place to buy the famous Belgian chocolate or try one of the Belgian beers. Or make yourself comfortable on the Grand Place with the traditional dish: French fries!

Nieuwpoort, like Ostend and Blankenberge, is a very popular seaside resort. Located on the banks of the Yser, a river that played an important role in the First World War, this small town is one of the most popular seaside resorts for Belgians, and children will surely appreciate the lake district and the Ysermonde nature reserve. And why not take a swim break?

Day 5 Ostend - Bruges 36 km

Let's return to Bruges via the Ostend - Bruges canal and the „Spuiikom“ through charming Flemish villages like Bredene. All children dream of spending a day by the sea!

Day 6 loop to Blankenberge 31 km

Blankenberge is the most popular seaside resort for Belgians, children will love the „Sea Life Marine Park“ where they can discover the fauna of the rivers and oceans such as piranhas, sharks, etc.

Day 7 Departure or extension

After breakfast it is time to leave again or you would like to extend your stay.

Day 2 Bruges - De Haan - Ostend 40 km

On the way to Ostend, the stage takes you through De Haan, the only village along the Belgian coast that has its architecture from the Belle Epoque (19. Century), and ends in Ostend, sometimes referred to as the „Queen of Beaches“. The hotel in Ostend is 100 meters from the beach and is particularly child-friendly. Also discover the playground „Airport Bowl“, the children's farm „De Lange Schuur“, etc.

Day 3 Loop to Oudenburg 30 km

This route takes us through the typical Flemish landscape, the polders: numerous fields and meadows, small villages in the distance like Oudenburg, which was founded on a former Roman settlement.
