ENNS CYCLE PATH | FROM RADSTADT TO LINZ | CLASSIC

If you want to experience Austria with all its natural charms, the best thing to do is to cycle along the Enns. From Salzburger Land through Styria to Upper Austria, this pleasure tour takes you along one of the most beautiful river cycle paths in the country - always accompanied by rushing water, quiet valleys and mighty mountains. You will cross two national parks, glide past steep rock faces, through alpine valleys and charming small towns. This journey is like a tasty portion of Holzknecht-nocken: down-to-earth, energizing and full of memories of the real, original Austria.

ARRIVAL

Daily
25.04 - 18.09.2026
Friday-Sunday
19.09-02.10.2026

Day 1 Arrival in Radstadt

Individual arrival in Radstadt, check-in at the hotel and handover of the travel documents as well as (when booking) your rental bike. Radstadt, affectionately known as the "old town in the mountains", invites you to take a leisurely walk with its medieval flair and mountain panorama. Example of hotel: Hotel Brüggler.

Day 2 Radstadt – Gröbming 45 km

It starts along the young Enns - lively and clear. Soon the view opens up to the imposing south faces of the Dachstein. You cycle through the Enns Valley via Schladming, past alpine meadows and with a mighty mountain backdrop behind you. The arrival in Gröbming is rewarded with panorama and Styrian cordiality. Example of hotel: Landhaus Amadeus

Day 3 Gröbming – Admont 55 km

It's a leisurely ride through the valley - the Enns always at your side. Soon the rugged peaks of the Gesäuse National Park rise up on the horizon - like a natural cathedral. A cultural highlight awaits you in Admont: the Benedictine monastery with the largest monastery library in the world. Example of hotel: Hotel Spirodom

Day 4 Admont – St. Gallen 55 km

Today it's going to be wildly romantic: The Enns squeezes through the spectacular Gesäuse - a 20 km long gorge that will make nature lovers go into raptures. Rocks, forest and river provide a natural spectacle that is second to none. In St. Gallen, the best way to end the day is with a glass of Styrian wine. Example of hotel: Hotel Hensle Side 3 from 8

Day 5 St. Gallen– Großbraming 45 km (incl. bus shuttle to the Mooshöhe)

Gallstein Castle greets you farewell. We continue through the Limestone Alps National Park - unspoiled, wooded, wild. Lynx, black stork and maybe even a real nature spirit live here. The ascent to the Mooshöhe is easily overcome by bus shuttle - so there is more power for amazement. Example of hotel: Hotel Kirchenwirt

Day 6 Großbraming – Steyr 42 km

Downstream and steeped in history: iron was once transported here on rafts, today you cycle relaxed through this traditional region. In Steyr, the Steyr flows into the Enns - and culture lovers get their money's worth: historic old town, castle houses, pure industrial culture. Example of hotel: Stadthotel Styria

Day 7 Steyr – Linz 50 km

The Enns becomes sluggish and wide - almost majestic as it passes the town of Enns, Austria's oldest city. Romans, Celts and Babenbergers have left their mark here. In the Museum Lauriacum, history becomes tangible before continuing on to the Danube to Linz. Example of hotel: Arcotel Hotel Nike

Day 8 Departure

Journey home or additional nights After breakfast, you can travel home on your own - or you can extend your stay in Linz. If you prefer it more comfortable, simply book the return transfer to Radstadt by bus or train.

SELF-GUIDED CYCLING TOUR

ROUTE CHARACTERISTICS

Runs mainly on small, quiet and paved country roads, partly on paved or separate cycle paths. There are ascents to be expected between Würzburg and the Tauber valley. The Tauber valley itself is then flatter with only slight ascents.
